

Nicole really struggled with showing her true identity to the world & feeling accepted. On the outside, to many, she was still portrayed as a boy.

Nicole would look in the mirror to see her true self, a beautiful girl placed in the wrong body. This was sad for her as she felt like she could not be her real self. For a long time she still had to be Wyatt, which was someone she wasn't. Whether people accepted it or not, she was determined to show her true colors.
