

EXAM 1

Art 290: Ancient Greek and Roman Art

Fall 2022

9/14/2022

30 points total, 15% of final grade

For each question, identify the time period in which the piece was made then and give a brief (1-2 sentence) answer. Each question is 1 point unless otherwise noted.

1. Title _____

Period _____

What is this type of masonry, composed of massive stone blocks, called?

What architectural technique is employed here for making an arch-like vault?

What is the name of this type of structure and what was its primary function? (2 points)

2. Title _____

Period _____

Identify the scene depicted on the neck of this vase.

How does vase differ from vases made for the same function in the previous period?
How is it similar? (2 points)

3. Title _____

Period _____

What are the main features that define this statue type? (2 points)

What other culture likely influenced this sculpture type and what elements show this influence? (2 points)

4. Title _____

Period _____

What culture of this period produced these objects?

What was one context in which they were commonly found?

5. Title _____

Period _____

How does this female statue type differ from the corresponding male type?

Describe the head of this statue. What style does this represent? (Hint: It's named as a mythological figure.) (2 points)

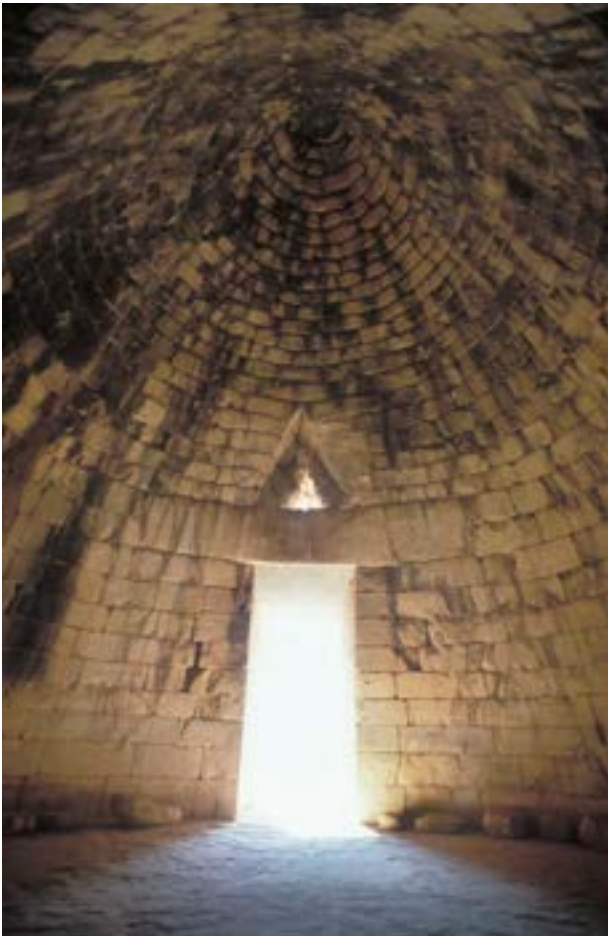

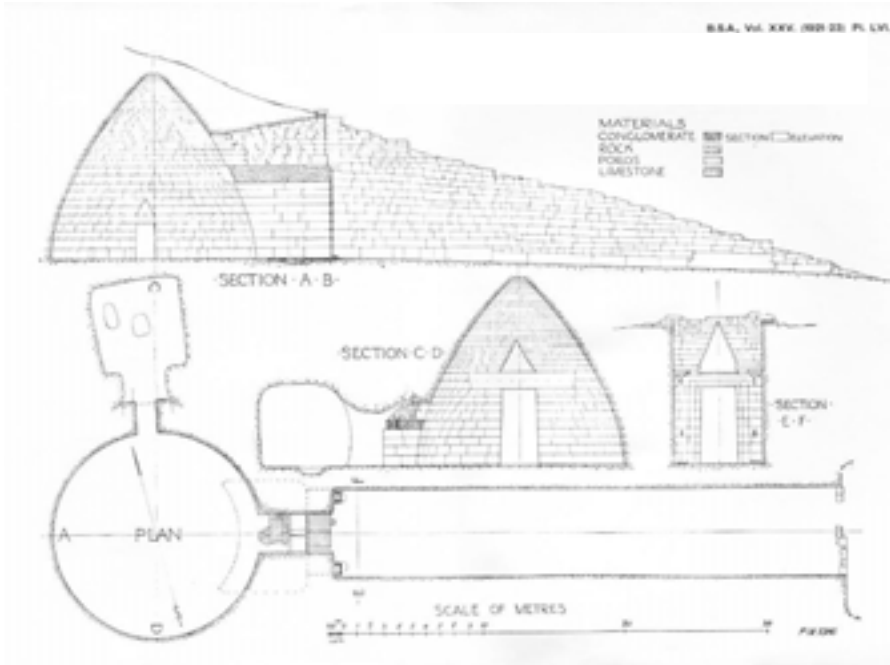

6. Title _____

Period _____

What was the function of this vase? / In what context was it used?

What can the shape and decoration of this vase tell us about the person it was made for?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

