Upside Down Drawing Response

September 2, 2022

When given this assignment, I was nervous about the outcome because I have never been very artistically inclined. To my surprise, once I began drawing the image, it started to come very easily to me. I was surprised I was able to recreate this image just from looking at a copy of it.

Once I got to the drawing of the face, it became a little more difficult, but overall, I was surprised at what I was able to accomplish.
