Between DuBois and Washington, which of the two pushed for higher education and which pushed for a more vocational approach to learning?

Du Bois and Washington would go on to become rivals, their philosophies of education and racial uplift diverging from one another. Du Bois favored vocal protest and higher education, while Washington preferred a gradual approach of Why did Whitman have his poem go through different settings and seasons?

The primary setting is America as a whole. Unlike other Whitman poems, which are set in New York City or out in the countryside, "Song of Myself" travels quickly from place to place, both rural and urban, mimicking the metaphorical
